

The VIKING

1961

THE

IKING

Dedication

We, of the Orfordville Senior class of 1961, in grateful appreciation for the instruction and advice given us, would like to say "Thank You" by dedicating this our annual, THE VIKING, to our commercial teacher, Mrs. Victor Stavn.

THE VIKING GIRL

The annual editors have chosen a junior, Miss Sandra Thorson, as THE VIKING GIRL of 1961. Sandy, representing an average high school girl, was chosen for her personality, photogenic appearance, and loyalty to her school.

CLASSES

PHILIP NELSON

A good fellow as well as a good student

DONALD SCHMIDT

He seems shy—but we wonder.

MARK FRETHEIM

One cannot always be a hero, but one can always be a man.

DAVID DICKISON

Not afraid of work, but not exactly in sympathy with it either.

DOUGLAS KANE
Too late to agree with me,
I've changed my mind.

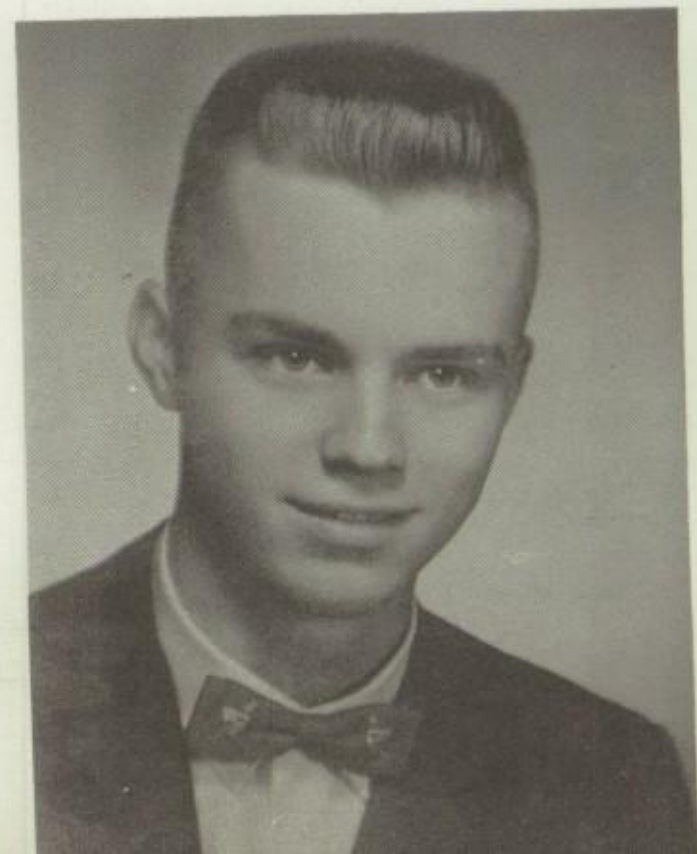

NORMA BAKKE
Good nature is thy second name.

DIANA BADTKE
Quiet persons are always welcome anywhere.

ERNEST BANDI
Life's more amusing than we thought.

LEAH BANDI

Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.

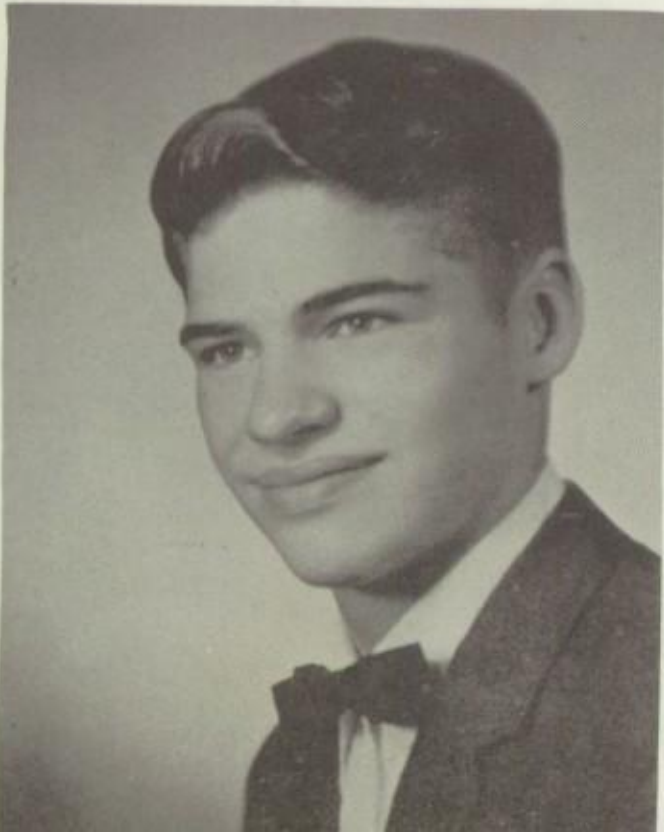

DAVID CARROLL

I know a lot but I can't think of it.

CYNTHIA BRAUER

So pretty, so young, she can't live long—single.

STEPHEN COON

It is not wise to be wiser than necessary.

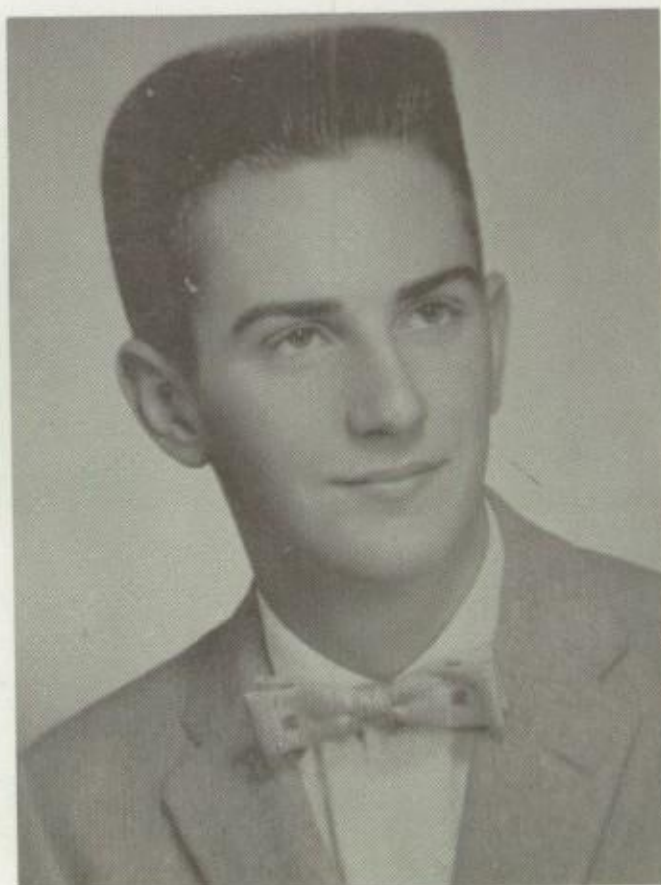

RICHARD EARLE
All work and no fun is no life for me.

ROBERT GOSDA
His greatest labor is to kill time.

NANCY GEISE
Silence is golden.

DAVID GRENAWALT
I came, I bluffed, I graduated.

KEITH HAGEN

Absence makes the heart grow fonder but not for school.

JOHN HAUGEN

If I am studying when you come in, wake me.

JUDY HOLMAN

A giggle is the same in any language.

DOUGLAS JONES

I'm in favor of 7-day weekends.

CAROLE KENNEDY
A busy person finds time for everything and does it well.

BONNIE KNUDSON
Her conduct is always right.

JUDY KETTLE
Would that there were more like her.

DELORES NELSON
A lot of pep in a small package.

JERRY NELSON
Sometimes I sit and think;
but mostly I just sit.

MICHAEL NYRE
Some men are born great,
others achieve it.

JULIE OLSON
Her circle of friendship will ever grow, for she's the kind of girl that's nice to know.

RAUBE PANN
The best way to lengthen the day is to steal a few hours from the night.

JERRY PAULSON
A will and a way of his own.

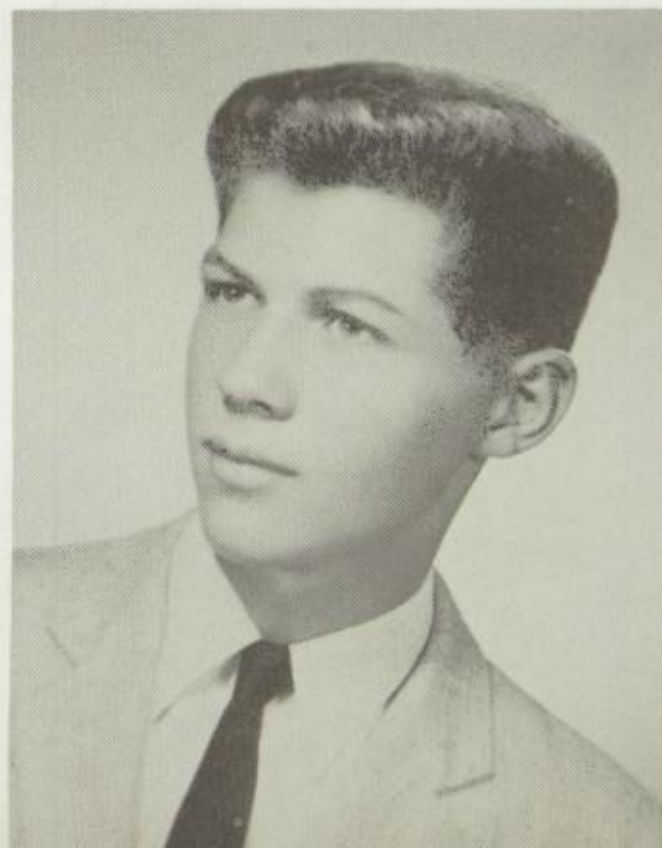

JAMES SAGEN
All the great men are dead,
but I feel fine.

WILLIAM PERKINS
What I want to get out of school myself.

MAYNARD SCHULTZ
Here, there and everywhere.

PAUL SKIBSRUD
Men are not measured by inches, but by achievements.

EUGENE TAYLOR
I don't care what happens—
just as long as it doesn't happen to me.

NANCY THOMPSON
She is a maiden fair to see.

RANDALL WEBER
He's something like a Nash—just a rambler.

MARVIN BOBZIEN
Young fellows will be young fellows.

Class History

Once upon a time long, long ago forty-six eager, but somewhat apprehensive freshmen entered the golden gates of learning at Orfordville High School. They were as follows: Diana Badtke, Norma Bakke, Ernest Bandi, Leah Bandi, George Bolden, Cynthia Brauer, David Brown, David Carroll, Stephen Coon, David Dickison, Richard Earle, Richard Egger, Mark Fretheim, Nancy Geise, Robert Gosda, David Grenawalt, Keith Hagen, Herman Hanson, John Haugen, Judy Holman, Stella Johnson, Douglas Kane, Carole Kennedy, Judith Kettle, Bonnie Knudson, Dennis Mabie, Judy Malmstrom, Jerry Nelson, Phillip Nelson, Stanley Nordeng, Michael Nyre, Julie Olson, Kenneth Olson, Raube Pann, Jerry Paulson, William Perkins, Shirley Prien, James Sagen, Donald Schmidt, Ellsworth Schneider, Maynard Schultz, Thomas Simonson, Paul Skibsrud, Gary Sutherland, Eugene Taylor and Randall Weber.

Presiding over our class were Mike Nyre, president; Douglas Kane, vice president; Julie Olson, secretary; Paul Skibsrud, treasurer; Bob Gosda, student council representative, and Mr. Beinema, class advisor.

After one hilarious and red-faced day of initiation, we truly felt as if we were a part of Orford. We were red-faced from the lip-stick. Then we gave our antagonizers a Sophomore Return Party.

Another big and busy event of the year was Homecoming. We were in a last-minute flurry getting our skit and window ready. We also built the traditional bonfire. Cindy Brauer was our representative on the Homecoming Court.

During the year we lost Stella Johnson, Dennis Mabie, Ellsworth Schneider, Gary Sutherland and Thomas Simonson. We gained Delores Nelson.

In the fall of 1958 forty-one no longer apprehensive, but still eager class members returned. The new additions to our class were Mary Coxe, Ellery Hitchcock, Connie Lawrence, Diana Lawrence, Linda Ballweg, Ronald Forstrom, Larry Olson, and Charles Ciaramita. We lost George Bolden, Ellery Hitchcock, John Haugen, Larry Olson, Shirley Prien and Charles Ciaramita.

Leading our sophomore class were Mr. Sammartano, class advisor; Paul Skibsrud, president; Mark Fretheim, vice president; Julie Olson, treasurer; Cindy Brauer, secretary, and Mike Nyre, student council representative.

That year we were the antagonizers and planned initiation for the freshmen. Then the freshmen gave us the customary Sophomore Return Party.

Our class chose Judy Kettle to be our homecoming court representative.

Naturally we were all thrilled when we ordered our class rings and couldn't wait for them to come.

1959 started with forty-three bright juniors. During the course of the year we gained Richard Bobzien, Marvin Bobzien, Sharon Nordeng, Nancy Thompson and Sharon Nelson. We lost Linda Ballweg, Richard Bobzien, Richard Egger, Judy Malmstrom, Sharon Nordeng and Connie Lawrence.

Our distinguished officers were Douglas Kane, president; Phillip Nelson, vice president; David Dickison, treasurer; Judy Kettle, secretary, and Julie Olson, student council representative. Our class advisor was Mr. Mauel.

Our class rings were all received with enthusiasm and admired by many, especially us.

We decorated the gym for the Homecoming Dance to fit the theme "Autumn Leaves." We dance to the music of Lewis Dalvit and his orchestra. Julie Olson was our Homecoming court representative.

"The Ghosts Go West" was the name of the class play we presented during our junior year. I know the cast had fun giving the play and at the party at Mr. Muenchow's house afterwards. Mr. Muenchow was our director.

After hustling and bustling about and making use of every spare moment we got the gym prepared for the Junior Prom. Reigning over this colorful event was Queen Julie Olson and King Jim Sagen. "Harbor Lights" was the theme. On the Queen's court were Judy Holman, Cindy Brauer, Norma Bakke and Bonnie Knudson. The King James Sagen had Steve Coon, Don Schmidt, Kenneth Olson and Raube Pann on his court.

Attending Badger Boys State were Phillip Nelson and Paul Skibsrud while Delores Nelson attended Badger Girls State. Paul Skibsrud went to the Music Clinic.

When our senior year came in the fall of 1960, we had thirty-eight brilliant students. We gained Douglas Jones and John Haugen, but we lost Kenny Olson, David Brown, Diana Lawrence and Sharon Nelson.

All boys served our class this year. They were Phillip Nelson, president; Don Schmidt, vice president; David Dickison, treasurer, Mark Fretheim, secretary and Doug Kane, student council representative. Miss Martin guided our class.

The two senior cheerleaders were on the Homecoming Court. Judy Kettle was the Queen and Mike Nyre was the King. Delores Nelson was the senior class homecoming court representative. The juniors decorated the gym for us for the theme of "Mr. Touchdown."

Many seniors held important offices this year. Paul Skibsrud was president of the Student Council, Julie Olson of F. T. A., Phillip Nelson of F. F. A., and Judy Holman of F. H. A. We had co-editors of both our paper and annual. Delores Nelson and Carole Kennedy headed the LOG staff. Cynthia Brauer and Julie Olson worked on the annual, THE VIKING.

As DAR winner Julie Olson was elected. Carole Kennedy was Valedictorian and Julie Olson Salutatorian.

Once again it was time to present the class play. Mr. Muenchow directed the play entitled "It's A Girl." It was presented on April 21. It was a big success.

Our Senior Class chose the carnation as our flower, mint green and gold for our colors, and our motto "Life is a play; 'Tis not its length, but its performance that counts."

Before we knew it, the class trip was upon us. As was expected, we had lots of fun. We had looked forward to this trip since the day we walked in for our freshman year.

On the fourth of June our Baccalaureate service was held. Five days later we were the alumni of '61.

Class Will

We, the class of 1961, being of questionably sound mind and character, do swear this, our last will and testament before leaving Orfordville High School.

We, the class of 1961, do will and bequeath the following to the faculty.

Mr. McGinnis: Students who are quiet during assembly programs.

Mr. Knaak: A jet, so he won't have to drive the "bug" so far.

Mr. MacKinnon: An automatic pass writer for students who like to go to their locker during study hall.

Mr. Muenchow: A play cast who knows how to conduct themselves at parties.

Miss Martin: A sound detector, to discover who makes the odd noises.

Miss Paynter: A chorus that's always on time.

Mrs. Stavn: A bookkeeping class who knows when she means business.

Mr. Sammartano: A football team that won't tie for the title, but win it.

Mr. Howe: A set of tools that won't get lost.

Mrs. Nelson: A sound-proof room or a quiet ag. class.

Mr. Mauel: A P. O. D. class that always listens to his advice.

Mr. Barry: A woman gym teacher so that he doesn't have to worry about showers.

Mrs. Dean: A checkwriter.

Mrs. Riese: A fool-proof method for figuring the lunches and money.

CLASSES—

Freshman: Our surplus knowledge.

Sophomore: Our excellent work habits.

Junior: Our good behavior.

I, Randall Weber, do will and bequeath my ability to skip school and get away with it to Dale Bakke.

Class Prophecy

The year is 1971, the day is Friday, January 19 and the place is the new Orfordville High School gym. The event of the night is the big basketball game with Brodhead.

My name is Judy Kettle, an alumna of '61, and I'm returning to my alma mater. As I enter the lobby, I meet Norma Bakke. We greeted each other and then went into the gym to talk over times. It seems that Norma had discovered a new reducing formula and had slimmed down to a trim 120 pounds. She was so successful that she began a chain of salons throughout all Europe. Delores Nelson had become one of her assistants in the Paris office where she specialized in gymnastics and judo. She's working on her black belt at present.

Then I explained to Norma that I was head secretary at the University in charge of all the monkeys. It seems that my job must have affected me, because everyone, more than ten feet away, looked like monkeys. As I popped a pill into my mouth, I told her of this wonderful psychiatrist that I had been consulting. I barely remembered her. Her name was something like Trudy Polman. No, that doesn't sound right. "Oh, you mean Judy Holman," exclaimed Norma. "That's right, and Carole Kennedy also goes to her. It seems she can't manage her millions and gets all nervous about someone taking it away from her."

Then we noticed Diana Badtke helping Eugene Taylor up the steps to a place to sit down. Eugene had been in a terrible car accident which left him partially paralyzed. Diana had been assigned to be his nurse.

Next came a funny looking man in a Japanese kimona followed by his wife and four little kimonas. We could hardly believe our eyes when we recognized John Haugen.

Norma began to tell me of a lovely model that came to her salon for daily exercises. She said her name was Beah Landi. She had changed her name from Leah Bandi for publicity reasons.

Bounding up the bleachers came Keith Hagen. He sat right between Norma and me and began to pitch his great line of the modern Romeo, he was in Hollywood. He was a great fan of Errol Flynn.

Bob Gosda and Steve Coon sat down in front of us. We learned from Steve that he had developed a new motor and was now manufacturing it for sale to the public. He called his invention the "Cooney Island Car." Bob Gosda hadn't been wasting his time as he had joined with Bob Hope to become a great comedian.

Steve was telling us that he bumped into Randall Weber and Bill Perkins last week when he was at the grand opening of their new stock car racing track in Magnolia. Then entered a lovely girl with hair of green. We finally recognized her as the French beauty, Nancy Thompson.

We watched the game for a while and then it was half time. The Marine Drill Corp was going to entertain us. We noticed Ernest Bandi leading the group on the floor. Right in the middle was Jim Sagen, who was still trying to complete his basic training.

Then came Doug Jones and Doug Kane over to sit by us. Doug Kane had just finished the bookkeeping for Doug Jones at the Standard Station. Doug Kane informed us that he was a "bouncer" for Jerry Paulson at the local bar.

Before we realized it, the game was over and it was time to leave. We all decided to go down to David Dickison's bowling alley. There we met Don Schmidt, Mike Nyre and Paul Skibsrud really throwing the curves. Mike had a little trouble rolling the ball because he was so used to bouncing it as basketball coach at Milton University. Don Schmidt couldn't do much better, for he had turned football coach at Notre Dame. The only one having real good luck was Paul. He was practicing for the world championship bowling match next week.

We wandered past another alley and were shocked to find Raube Pann trying to bowl with his slacks rolled up to his knees and in bare feet. He was used to this costume because he owned a thousand acres of rice paddies in China. He had become so rich that he took a vacation back to the states to visit David Carroll. David had become a big dairy farmer in Beloit. He was able to buy out the Brown Swiss farms and was really raking in the dough.

On the next alley were two teams. The two captains were fighting like crazy. I learned that this was the usual thing for Cindy Brauer and Richard Earle. They each owned a big supermarket in Orford and were always trying to out do each other in sales.

We quickly left them and began a match of our own on alley 26. We were one man short so we convinced David Grenawalt to come and bowl. He had stayed in Orford and had now worked up to the position of head mechanic at "Jones Standard."

He told us of Jerry Nelson who was a cowboy in a traveling wild west show.

Over in the corner we noticed a TV set and Maynard Schultz was playing the organ for his program called "Maynard's Music" from 11 to 12 every night.

We decided it was time to leave and as we walked out the door we bumped into Bonnie Knudson. It seems her husband had just gotten off work from the local steel mill and they were going to celebrate his birthday. She had a big package under her arm and she informed us it was a portrait done by Mark Fretheim in Paris.

Then we noticed this big cadillac roll up in front of the door. A chauffeur jumped out and opened the door for Phil Nelson who had become a great baseball player for the New York Yankees. With him came Julie Olson, Phil's head secretary in charge of all his fan mail. Julie told us she had received a fan letter from a former classmate Nancy Geise who had become a very successful housewife and mother. Julie asked us if we had seen the evening paper. On the front page—blaring headlines read "U. S. sends first man to the moon." The man's picture was on the front page. Norma recognized him as Marvin Bobzien. She exclaimed "I always knew he would go places."

By this time it was really quite late so Norma and I parted to go our own ways after an amazingly wonderful evening after ten years.

Class Poem

Listen my friends, for I do fear,
A stranger tale you'll never hear.
Of our senior class of '61
Now, meet them each and everyone.

First on our list is Diana B.
Always friendly and happy is she.
Next comes a girl full of fun
Norma B. cannot be out done.

Ernie B. a marine will be
His career is all set up, you see.
Tall and crazy is sister Leah
A nurse, she really wants to be a.

Marvin B. is quite a lad
He really wants to be a "grad."
Cindy B. drives to school each day
For her "love" is far away.

A quiet one is David C.
On the farm he'll always be.
Here comes Steve in his car
We're all sure he'll go far.

David D. works much in the store
Of what he'll be we're not sure.
Next on our list comes Richard Earle
He's a boy always in a whirl.

Another friend is a boy named Mark
He's very talented in music and art.
With red hair and quiet as can be
That's our girl, Nancy G.

Never quiet or still is Robert G.
He, too, a marine wants to be.
Happy and true to the end
David G. is a good friend.

Keith H. is a boy of many ways
For FFA he really plays.
Happy, happy, John H. will be
When school is out, you'll see.

In the morning Judy H. butters our bread
But egg salad sandwiches are her dread.
Doug J. is really full of fun
He can't wait 'till school is done.

Junior Class President was Doug Kane
We know that he's on his way to fame.
At the top of her class is Carole K.
To get rich is her play.

Homecoming Queen was our girl Judy
Known always for her real beauty.
Quite a lass is Bonnie K.
She works hard all the day.

Delores is as peppy as she can be
That she loves cheering is easy to see.
After our Donkey Basketball game
Jerry N's never been the same.

To Badger Boys State went Phil N.
He liked it so well, he'd go again.
In basketball, Mike is a star
We're all sure he'll go far.

Julie O. was Junior Prom Queen
A sharper girl we've not seen.
In our class play was Raube P.
Could it be an actor is for he?

Where there's fun you'll always see
That pink Pontiac of Jerry P.
Bill's main interest is his car
Give him gas and he'll go far.

Our star pitcher is Jim Sagen
When it comes to baseball, he's not lagin'.
All-State team was Donald Schmidt.
When playing football, he'll not quit.

It's only Maynard, is the cry,
To play the organ, he will try.
Student Council president was Paul,
But his real love was football.

Next on our list is Eugene T.
A farmer is what he'll always be.
Snow Ball Queen was Nancy T.
Pretty and sweet, that was she.

Fun and frolic are for Randy.
At settin' pins he's mighty handy.

END

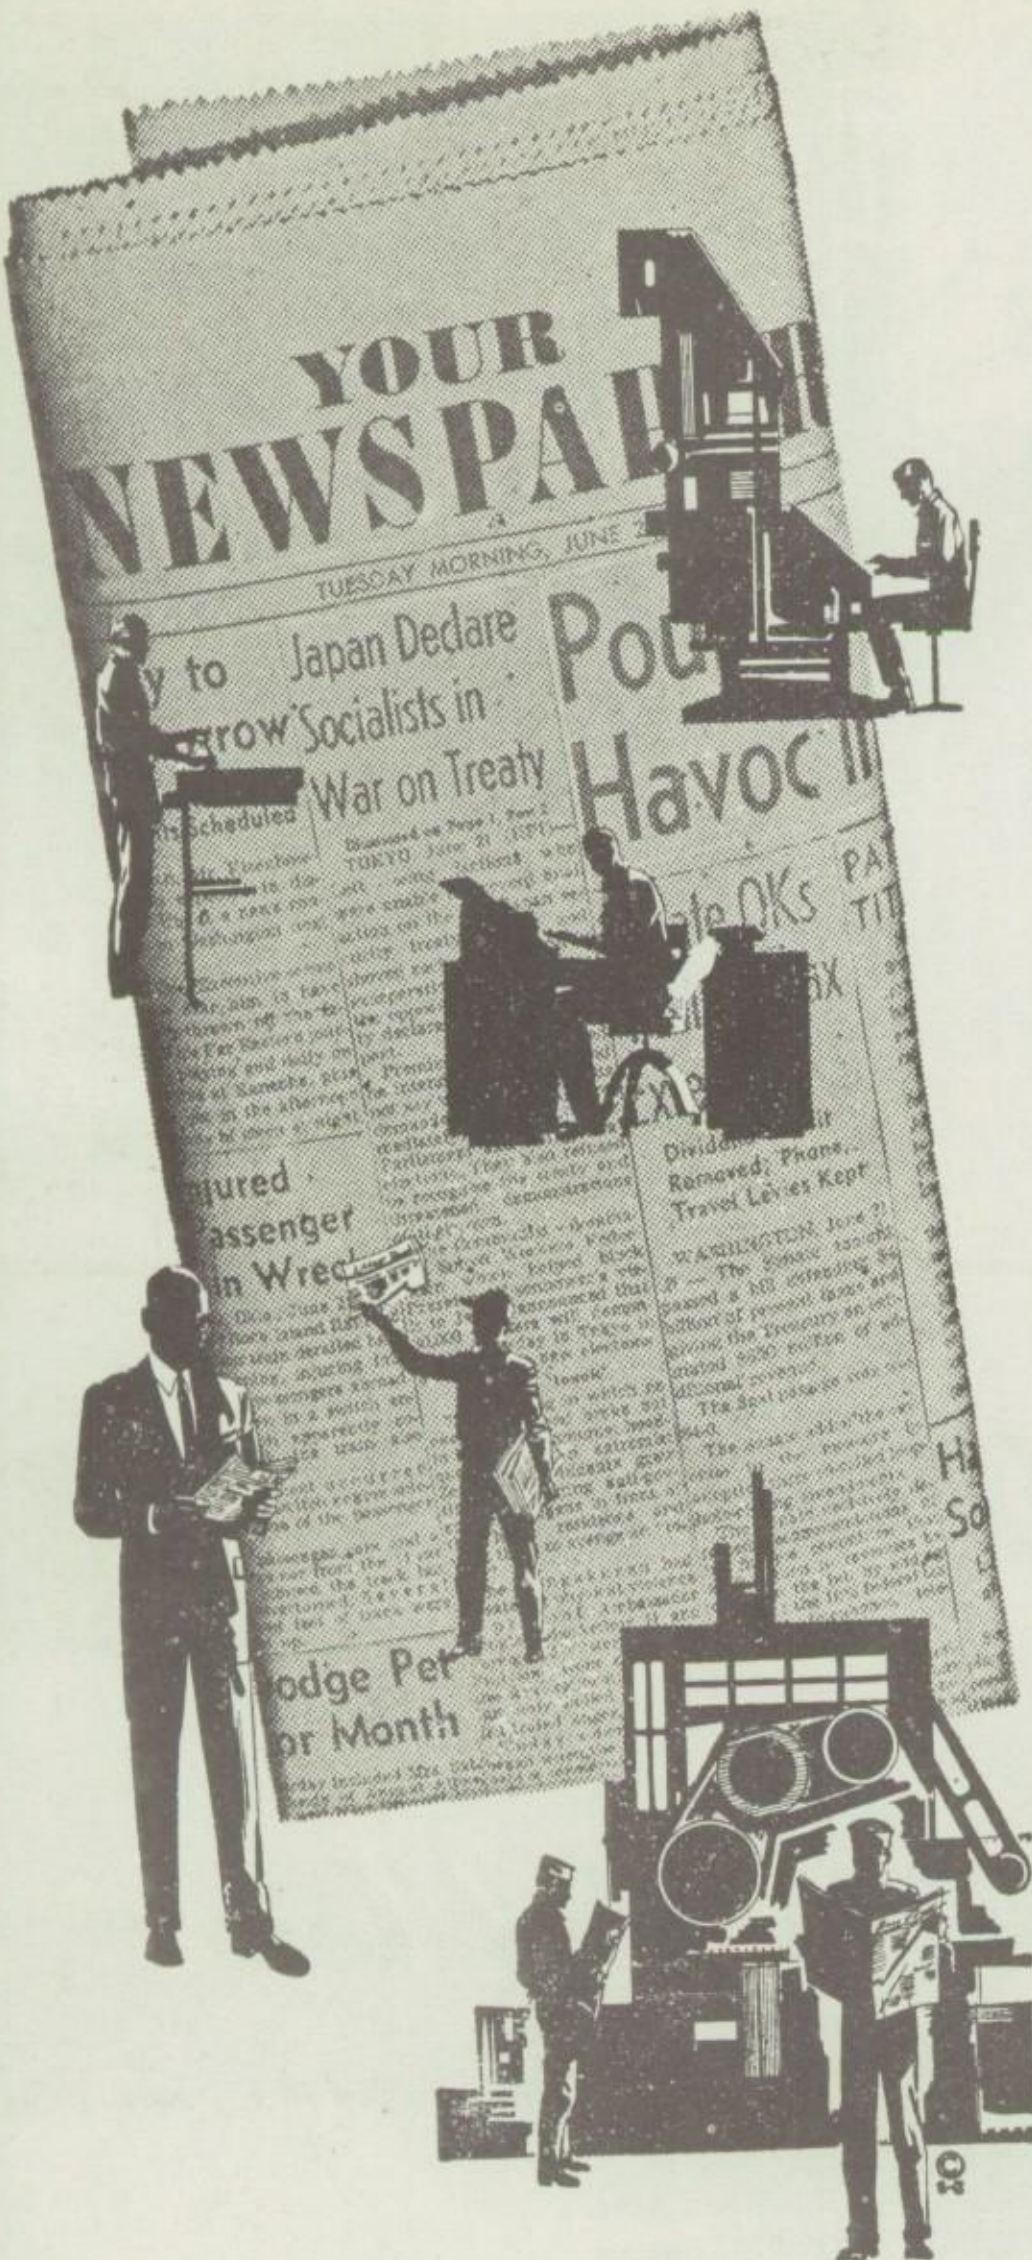

Class Song

For we were loyal Vikings of Orford High,
Both you and I.
Goodbye to books and hours of fun.
We bore the blue and white
And under them we'd fight!
Day and night.
We're the class of '61.
